

Benjamin Gregory Carlisle

#15-4982 Chemin Queen-Mary
Montréal, Québec H3W 1X2

438-888-2264

benjamin.carlisle@mail.mcgill.ca
www.bgcarlisle.com

Teaching

Teacher's Assistant, Philosophy 237 (Contemporary Moral Issues)

McGill University Department of Philosophy—January 2011 to April 2011

Teacher's Assistant, Philosophy 230 (Introduction to Moral Theory)

McGill University Department of Philosophy—September 2010 to December 2010

Teacher's Assistant, Philosophy 343 (Biomedical Ethics)

McGill University Department of Philosophy—September 2009 to December 2009

Education

Master of Science (Applied), Nursing

McGill University—September 2011 to present

Master of Arts, Philosophy (Bioethics)

McGill University—September 2009 to October 2011

Bachelor of Arts, Honors Specialization in Philosophy, Minor in Medical Science

The University of Western Ontario—September 2003 to April 2009

Employment

Research Assistant, Biomedical Ethics Unit, McGill University

Montréal QC—September 2010 to August 2011

Web Designer, LinkNow! Media

Montréal QC—May 2010 to July 2010

Website Manager, Biomedical Ethics Unit, McGill University

Montréal QC—September 2009 to April 2010

Short-Term International Intern, Power to Change, Canada

Shijiazhuang, China—August 2006 to August 2007

Publications

Carlisle BG. A critique of phase IV seeding studies on the basis of a non-paternalistic justification for subject protections in human research. MA Thesis, McGill University, Montréal Québec, 2011.